

Form for accessing the reduced fare for non-resident passengers traveling for work purposes.

The passenger must present this declaration at boarding, along with a copy of a valid identification document. In the event that the passenger boards without this declaration, or with an incomplete or non-conforming declaration, the airline may deny boarding unless the price difference between the paid ticket and the higher ticket price for non-resident passengers at the time of boarding is paid.

This form must be completed in print, preferably on a computer, without errors and/or erasures, clearly and accurately.

Airport staff, in accordance with current regulations, will carry out appropriate checks, including random checks, to verify the truthfulness of the declarations made. Passengers who benefit from the tariff advantage provided for residents are advised to keep documentation attesting to their travel in order to allow for subsequent verification. Under Article 76 of Presidential Decree No. 445/2000, anyone who issues false declarations is punishable under the penal code and special laws on the matter.

SELF-DECLARATION OF A NOTORIOUS FACT.

Pursuant to Article 47 of Presidential Decree No. 445 of December 28, 2000, aware of the criminal penalties provided for in Article 76 of the same Presidential Decree 445/2000 for cases of false statements and declarations as indicated therein, and knowledgeable about the provisions of Article 75 of the same Presidential Decree 445/2000 concerning the forfeiture of benefits that may result from measures based on untrue declarations.
